

the table your grill deserves

a grill like yours deserves a table like this

The hours you spend with your Big Green Egg® grill should be enjoyable. Now, with a table from Southern Specialties Outdoor Living Products, you can bring your grill up to a comfortable cooking level, enjoy a stainless steel surface for food preparation, and even choose between right- or left-hand orientation. The comforts of the table don't stop with the table top and grilling area. Every table features:

Handle doubles as towel rack and grate holder.

Grill can be located on right- or left-hand side of table to suit cooking preference.

Food-grade stainless steel top provides an easily cleaned food preparation surface.

Full-open drawer with soft-close slides for all your grilling accessories.

Vertical storage for ceramic plate setter, pizza stone, grill grate and more.

Ample storage space for charcoal, propane tanks, racks, tools and more.

Heavy-duty casters for easy maneuvering and stability.
